Amherst Community Arts Center (ACAC) is a non-profit visual arts education center located at 534 Main Street in Amherst Massachusetts.

We offer beginner through advanced art classes to children (starting at age 18 months old, accompanied by parent/guardian), adults and seniors.

The arts curriculum varies widely including pottery making, drawing, painting, mixed media, cartooning, sculpture, soap making, mask making, printmaking and various other art/craft classes.

Classes are open to the public, we are a handicapped accessible facility.

ART FOR ALL: is an inclusion program for children ages 6 - 16. Offers young people the opportunity to work with clay and express themselves in a creative environment that respects the unique circumstances of all children, with and without special needs. Fall and Spring sessions. $50 per student--everything included.
